

CITATION

State Roger Sherman Medal

The Silver Roger Sherman Medal is awarded to Leland Hutchins in recognition of, and in appreciation of, outstanding services rendered to a State Society. The medal is presented to a compatriot for significant service. The recipient must have served as an active officer for a minimum of two years, as an active committee chairman for three years, or as an active member of a committee for four years.

The medal is named after Roger Sherman (1721-1793), who was a founding father, and the only person to sign all four Congressional papers of the United States: The Continental Association, the Declaration of Independence, The Articles of Confederation, and The Constitution.

The medal is antique silver in color and bears on the obverse a portrait of Roger Sherman. The reverse of the medal is inscribed with "In Appreciation for Service to the SAR." It is suspended from a chest ribbon of blue, white and red.

George Washington Chapter President one year
State Board of Directors one year
Membership and Chapter Support Chairman, 2 years
Strategic Planning Committee, 1 year

Therefore, Leland Hutchins is most worth to receive the Silver Roger Sherman Medal from the Washington State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.
